Operating an SME or family business can be very demanding. Whatever the product, service or business sector; there are always constant exposures:

- Buildings, signage, merchandise or equipment damage
- Public liability claims made against you for injury or damage caused by your negligence
- Claims made by employees who have been injured or made ill in the workplace
- Data breaches, theft of stock and money, robberies, fraud, online scams and cyber crime
- Professional indemnity due to incorrect or negligent advice
- Expensive employee claims and tribunals
